The large mansion of William Wiley, on 109th street, burned yesterday; loss $30,000.

At ten o'clock yesterday forenoun, officers Rogers and Osborn, of the Newark police, arrested two men at the ship yards, in the Twelfth ward, who, with others, had been insulting a woman on a cansi boat, and had thrown her child into the canal. The officers were set upon by the prisoners and three others, and Rogers was disarmed and felled to the ground. Officer Osborn met with similar treatment, and the two men were glad to get away with their lives.

A telegram from White Sulphur Springs states that General Rosecrans was there for the purpose of consulting with General Lee and other Southern Generals in regard to a plan for the general reconciliation of the people of both sections of the country. In accordance with this programme, a private meeting was held, at which Gens. Lee, Longstreet, Beauregard. Ewell, Echols and Hunter, and A. H. Stuart, John B. Baldwin, Govs. Stockdale, of Texas, Pickens, of S. C., and Walker, of Alabama, were present with General Rosecrans. A long consultation took place and a plan of action agreed upon, but nothing further has transpired of the Proposed movement. It is believed that an address will be issued to the Southern people by their formerleaders.

HARRISBUEG, Pa., Aug. 24—Three men who have been working as engineers in the vicinity of Buil Run, Pennsylvania, were arrested on Friday on the charge of being concerned in the great Benninghoff robbery. It is said that some time since Deputy Sheriff Kinney, of Petroleum Centre, got hold of a clue to what is alleged to be a gang which perpetrated the robbery, but which is wholly unconnected with that which was led by Jim Slager, of Slagertown, from time to time. Mr. Kinney has succeeded in obtaining the information which led to the arrest of the parties arrested is not given. Pitrsdurgh, August 24.—The torch light procession and reception of Gen. Clubs, for which extensive arrangements had been made, was an imposing affair. General Schurz was received at the depot by the Second Ward Club, who escorted him to the hotel and afterwards to the City Hall, where he delivered a stirring address in the German language. The hall was crowded to overflowing and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. He was afterwards serpanded at the Monongahela House, and responded in English.

Extensive preparations are being made for the Sangerfest to be held in this city, commencing Monday. The proceedings will be inaugurated by a torch light procession. Addresses are expected from Gov. Geary and other prominent speakers.

Columbia, August 23.—The Republican denies the recent report that the Legislature proposes to repudiate a class of State bonds and selze the assets of the Statebank which are pledged to pay them. Only the profits of the bank are pledged to pay them, only the profits of the bank are pledged to pay them bonds are secure with or without this law. The law, if possible, strengthens them. The explanation of the matter is, that the Legislature of 1865 appropriated the assets of the bank to the foreign bond-holders, depriving the bill-holders of their prior claim. The present bill reverses that action, and protects the bill-holders of their prior claim. The present bill reverses that action, and protects the bill-holders as ereditors of the State.
